Relentless Resources Closes Asset Exchange

June 20, 2013 - CALGARY, ALBERTA – Relentless Resources Ltd. (TSXV:RRL) (“Relentless” or the “Company”) announced today that the Company has closed its previously announced asset exchange in accordance with an asset exchange agreement with an arm’s length Calgary-based private oil and gas company (“Privateco”). Relentless assigned all of its petroleum and natural gas interests in the Loverna area of south-western Saskatchewan in exchange for Privateco’s interests in producing petroleum and natural gas properties located in the Willesden Green area of Alberta, and an aggregate of 53,723 net acres of undeveloped petroleum and natural gas interests located in various areas throughout Alberta and a cash payment of $200,000.00 (the “Transaction”).

The disposition of the Relentless interests in the Loverna property to Privateco was considered a "reviewable disposition" under the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”), for which the Company obtained the written consent of a majority of the “disinterested” shareholders of Relentless. Final Exchange approval of the Transaction is subject to the Company filing of final documentation with the Exchange, customary for transactions of this nature.

It is expected that the Common Shares of Relentless will resume trading on the Exchange or about June 21, 2013.
